Don't Forget Jesus

*Christmas is a special time to reflect on Jesus Christ
The wonder of His lowly birth brings meaning to our lives*

*There really is no other reason we celebrate this day
The birth of God's precious son and the life He willingly gave*

*But so much seems to distract us in the bustling of our lives
We lose our focus in all the happenings not knowing,
we leave out Christ.*

We lose sight of the true meaning as we endlessly rush about Trying to find that perfect gift seems to cloud our Savior out

*We need to stop and reflect awhile remembering our precious Lord
His birth, His life and sacrifice and all that He stands for*

*For though the world may celebrate it seems for other reasons
Let's keep in mind that Jesus Christ is the true meaning of the season.*

DECEMBER:

THE TRUTH MATTERS...
ABOUT LAST THINGS!

6th—Secret Sister Revealing

17th— Jan 2— Christmas Break

25th— Christmas Day

AND YE SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH, AND THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU FREE.

JOHN 8: 32

On the final day of a Christian publishing conference in Singapore, 280 participants from 50 countries gathered in the outdoor plaza of a hotel for a group photo. From the second-floor balcony, the photographer took many shots from different angles before finally saying, “We’re through.” A voice from the crowd shouted with relief, “Well, joy to the world!” Immediately, someone replied by singing, “The Lord is come.” Others began to join in. Soon the entire group was singing the familiar carol in beautiful harmony. It was a moving display of unity and joy that I will never forget.

In Luke’s account of the Christmas story, an angel announced the birth of Jesus to a group of shepherds saying, “And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. ¹¹ For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.” (Luke 2:10–11).

The joy was not for a few people, but for all. “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” (John 3:16).

As we share the life-changing message of Jesus with others, we join the worldwide chorus in proclaiming “the glories of His righteousness and wonders of His love.”

“Joy to the world, the Lord is come!”

FATHER, GIVE US EYES TO SEE PEOPLE OF ALL NATIONS AS RECIPIENTS OF YOUR GRACE AND JOY.

The good news of Jesus’s birth is a source of joy for all people.
