We are the Payton family, missionaries to Nicaragua. We are sent out of Immanuel Baptist Church, Jacksonville, FL, and assisted by Macedonia World Baptist Missions. Please pray for us as we labor

- Establish a church in the city of Managua, Nicaragua
- Evangelize the lost though old-fashioned soul-winning
- Equip young men to be preachers through a Bible institute
- Expand the ministry of the gospel to surrounding cities
- Begin a Christian school for Nicaraguan children
- Bring the light of the gospel to the masses of neglected deaf in Nicaragua
- Be a site for hands-on missionary training and pastoral assistance
- Build a work that is honoring to Christ and those who have invested in us

Because we strongly value your security and safety, and in a measure to monitor our buildings for safety and security, we have made a few changes —

- All doors will be locked 15 minutes after services begin.
- Parking Lots will be monitored during all services.
- Security Team is in place every service.

“DESPISED FOR ALL OF THIS”

Susannah Cibber gained fame in the eighteenth century for her talent as a singer. However, she was equally well known for her scandalous marital problems. That's why when Handel's Messiah was first performed in Dublin in April 1742, many in the audience did not approve of her role as a featured soloist.

During that inaugural performance, Cibber sang of the Messiah: "He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief" (Isaiah 53:3). Those words so moved Rev. Patrick Delany that he jumped to his feet and said, "Woman, for this be all thy sins forgiven thee!"

The connection between Susannah Cibber and the theme of Handel's Messiah is evident. The "man of sorrows"—Jesus the Messiah—was "despised and rejected" because of sin. The prophet Isaiah said, "...my righteous servant justify many, for he shall bear their iniquities" (v. 11).

The connection between Messiah and us is no less apparent. Whether we stand with the judgmental audience members, with Susannah Cibber, or somewhere in between, we all need to repent and receive God's forgiveness. Jesus, by His life, death, and resurrection, restored our relationship with God our Father.

For this—for all Jesus did—be all our sins forgiven.
