

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK

SIEKBERT
FAMILY
MISSIONARY TO UGANDA

Charles and his wife, Madelon, along with their five children minister to the people of Uganda. They have been serving the Lord there for over thirteen years. The Siekbert family is sent out of First Baotist Church of Milford, Ohio. Please pray for them as this season of their ministry has been, not just busy, but trying.

“A JOURNEY TO BELIEF”

Since its first publication in 1880, Lew Wallace’s novel Ben-Hur: A Tale of the Christ has never been out of print. It has been called the most influential Christian book of the nineteenth century, and it continues to draw readers today as it weaves the true story of Jesus with that of a fictional young Jewish nobleman named Judah Ben-Hur.

Amy Lifson, writing in Humanities magazine, said that the writing of the book transformed the life of the author. “As Ben-Hur guided readers through the scenes of the Passion, so did he lead the way for Lew Wallace to believe in Jesus Christ.” Wallace said, “I have seen the Nazarene . . . I saw him perform works which no mere man could perform.”

The Gospels’ record of the life of Jesus allows us to walk alongside Him, witness His miracles, hear His words, and see His triumphal entry into Jerusalem on what we call Palm Sunday. At the conclusion of John’s gospel, he wrote, “And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: <sup>31</sup> but these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” (John 20:30–31). Just as Lew Wallace’s research, reading of the Bible, and writing led him to believe in Jesus, so God’s Word draws us to a transformation of mind and heart by which we have eternal life in and through Him.

LORD, MAY THE RECORD OF YOUR LIFE
BE WRITTEN ON OUR MINDS AND HEARTS
SO THAT WE MAY HAVE EVER-INCREASING
FAITH IN YOU.

Many books can inform, but only the Bible can transform.
