MISSIONARIES TO KENYA

God began to work on my heart in early 2016 about going to Kenya as a missionary. I talked with my wife about how God was leading me, and she was in full agreement with what God was doing. After much prayer and seeking the Lord's will in the Scriptures, we became certain that God indeed calling us to Kenya.

My wife and I took our survey trip to Kenya in July of 2016. While there I had the opportunity to lead three Kenyan men to Jesus Christ, and my burden to reach Kenya with the Gospel grew! When we return to Kenya, our ministry focus will be on planting indigenous churches that will reproduce themselves over and over again, and on training "faithful men who shall be able to teach others also."

JOHN 8: 32

During World War II, small compasses saved the lives of 27 sailors 300 miles off the coast of North Carolina. Waldemar Semenov, a retired merchant seaman, was serving as a junior engineer aboard the SS Alcoa Guide when a German submarine surfaced and opened fire on the ship. The ship was hit, caught fire, and began to sink. Semenov and his crew lowered compass-equipped lifeboats into the water and used the compasses to guide them toward the shipping lanes closer to shore. After three days, the men were rescued.

The psalmist reminded God's people that His Word was a trustworthy "compass." He likened it to a lamp. In that day, the flickering light cast by an olive oil lamp was only bright enough to show a traveler his next step. To the psalmist, God's Word was such a lamp, providing enough light to illuminate the path for those pursuing God (Ps. 119:105). When the psalmist was wandering in the dark on a chaotic path of life, he believed that God, through the guidance of His Word, would provide direction.

When we lose our bearings in life, we can trust our God who gives His trustworthy Word as our compass, using it to lead us into deeper fellowship with Him.

HEAVENLY FATHER, IT IS DIFFICULT TO NAVIGATE LIFE. I DRIFT SOMETIMES, BUT I WILL TRUST IN YOU. LEAD ME AND GUIDE ME BY THE FAITHFULNESS AND RELIABILITY OF YOUR WORD.

God has given us His Word to help us know and follow Him.
