AND YE SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH, AND THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU FREE.

JOHN 8: 32

Joseph found himself in a difficult position one day when his master's wife attempted to seduce him. How tantalizing this woman must have been to a healthy young man! And it must have occurred to Joseph how fearsome her wrath would be when he spurned her advances.

Yet Joseph flatly resisted her. His moral convictions stemmed from his clear view of sin and his reverence for God. He said to her, "how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?" (Gen. 39:9).

Today, it is popular to call sin by more acceptable names. But using euphemisms for offenses against God will only weaken our resistance and trivialize sin's harmfulness to us. To Joseph, sin was not just "an error of judgment." Nor was it a mere "slip of the tongue" or an "indiscretion" in a "moment of weakness." Joseph saw sin for what it was—a serious offense against the Lord—and he did not play down the gravity of the offense.

God's moral standards are absolute. It is only when we see sin as something abhorrent to the Lord that we will be motivated to make right moral judgments. Calling sin by a softer name will change neither its offensiveness to God nor its cost to us.

There's no excuse for excusing sin.

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK

THE KELLY FAMILY MISSIONARIES TO THE DEAF

Often God allows something to affect his children, like Paul's "thorn in the flesh," and, though we often times cannot see the reason, God has one. He is constantly seeking to perfect us and give us greater opportunity to bring Him glory.

Bruce and Vicki Kelly are shining examples of this. They have taken their deafness and turned it into a great avenue to bring souls to the Master, reaching out to the Deaf in America and in many parts of the world.
