JOHN 8: 32

We often see surveys that ask people if they are happy, satisfied with their work, or enjoying life. But I've never seen an opinion poll that asked, "Are you holy?" How would you answer that question?

One Bible dictionary defines holiness as "separation to God and conduct fitting for those separated." Author Frederick Buechner said that when writing about a person's character, "nothing is harder to make real than holiness." He adds that "holiness is not a human quality at all, like virtue. Holiness is . . . not something that people do, but something that God does in them."

Romans 6 presents the stunning gift that God gives us through faith in Christ: "Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life." (v.4). The pursuit of holiness occurs daily as we yield ourselves in obedience to the Lord instead of following our old ways of self-gratification. "But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life." (v.22).

Are you becoming more holy? By God's grace and power, the answer can be a resounding "Yes! More and more each day."

FATHER, I WANT TO COOPERATE WITH YOU IN YOUR WORK OF CHANGING ME TO BECOME MORE LIKE JESUS. HELP ME TO WALK IN YOUR WAYS. WITHOUT YOUR WORK IN ME, NOTHING OF LASTING VALUE WILL OCCUR IN MY GROWTH IN HOLINESS.

The choice to pursue holiness is a matter of life or death.

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK

WES &
REBECCA
BURNS
MISSIONARIES TO CANADA

God has called the Burns family to take the Gospel to Quebec, Canada. In land mass, Quebec is the largest province in Canada. In population, it is the second largest: just over 8.1 million people call Quebec their home. According to a recent study, there are less than 40,000 professing Christians in the province of Quebec: in other words, less than ½% of the people of Quebec profess Jesus Christ as Saviour. Quebec boasts a humanistic society that rejects biblical truth. The people of Quebec are in desperate need of the life-changing truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Some 205 kilometers east of Havre-Saint-Pierre, the road ends at the English community of Kegaska. After the end of the road system, there are many remote communities (English, French, and Inuit) that need to hear the Gospel. These communities represent close to 5,000 unreached souls. Wes and Rebecca desire to reach into these remote communities with the Gospel. They are currently in the process of raising funds for an airplane to facilitate their ministry in Quebec (and possibly beyond) as the Lord directs.
